Credentials of Applicant

(Reference BOC 6, subchapter D, section 6.151 et seq)

Memberships in the name of another corporation may be voted by such officer, agent or proxy as the by-laws of such corporation may prescribe, or, in the absence of such provision, as the board of directors of such corporation may determine.

Memberships held by an administrator, executor, guardian or conservator may be voted by him, either in person or by proxy, without a transfer of such memberships into the name or the administrator, etc.

Memberships standing in the name of a trustee may be voted by him, either in person or by proxy, but no trustee shall be entitled to vote any memberships held by him without a transfer of such memberships and certificates into his name.

Memberships standing in the name of a receiver may be voted by such receiver, and memberships held by or under the control of a receiver may be voted by such receiver without the transfer thereof into his name if authority to do so is contained in an appropriate order of the court by which such receiver was appointed.

A member whose membership is mortgaged, pledged, or otherwise encumbered shall be entitled to vote such membership until the membership has been transferred into the name of the holder of the encumbrance.
